S. A. Canyon Dam Plans Are Nearly Completed

Huge Structure To Be Built As Postwar Project

As another development in the contemplated gigantic flood control dam in San Antonio canyon "definite project" plans are being prepared and "within several weeks," the proposal will be submitted to the chief engineer of the U. S. army, G. B. Bebout, engineer at the Los Angeles office, said today.

When these plans are approved in the chief engineer's office, definite construction plans and specifications must be started within 30 days, according to the official

"The project is being prepared definitely as a post-war undertaking and we are completing all preliminary work up to the point of submitting the project to contractors," explained Mr. Bebout. He emphasized that his department is keeping in close touch with "local interests." He said that Howard Way, county engineer, and his assistant Royal V. Ward, were frequently consulted and that in turn these men conferred with other local people.

Representatives from the army engineering office were here recently to obtain additional data and to confer with local men who are well acquainted with the water situation.

Mr. Bebout said the dam has been tentatively located at the "mouth of the canyon." Locally the site had been described as "Twenty-sixth street." Many soil tests and exhaustive surveys have been conducted in obtaining information for use in deciding where the gigantic dam would be placed across the canyon.

The proposed dam will be from 135 to 160 feet in height extending from one wall to the other in the canyon. At the base, Mr. Bebout said, the dam would be approximately 500 feet in thickness.

Purpose of the dam is to control flood waters pouring out of the canyon and to conserve the water. Plans for the undertaking were started soon after the disastrous flood of 1937.

The "'definite" project plans," will define the site, how the dam will operate, location of the outlets and how the water will be handled at the outlets, according to the engineer. All engineering phases of the project will be completely covered—and these have been prepared after conferences with local officials and a thorough analysis of the situation, Mr. Bebout reported.

The official declined to give an estimate of the cost, but originally the estimate was several million dollars.

Land tentatively chosen for the site is now privately owned, according to Mr. Bebout. One of the preliminaries to be completed when the plans are approved is for the government to obtain ownership of the property.

When the proposed dam was first discussed, the tentative site was across the canyon near Twenty-third street. Use of that site would have directly affected valuable citrus acreage. The present site, however, is further into the canyon and as far as is known no citrus property will be directly affected in the construction project.

Mt. View Group Reelects Leaders

Paul Schowalter, active civic worker, was reelected to the presidency of the Mountain View Citrus association at the annual meeting held on Saturday at the association's office on Stowell street and Eighth avenue.

In addition to electing directors, the members received the annual report of Earl H. Johnson, secretary-manager. Harry B. Harlow, manager of the Ontario-Cucumonga Fruit Exchange, spoke at the meeting on the past season and outlook for the future.

In addition to Mr. Schowalter, officers and directors elected were G. B. Ford, vice president; Dr. Ralph Smith, Alan A. Couch and H. S. Campbell, directors. Ernest J. Wangler is assistant secretary.

Five Ward Brothers of Cucamonga Star in Chaffey Sports; Four Now in Armed Forces

Cucamonga is proud of its Ward boys, five brothers who have brought sports honors to Chaffey high school and college and four of whom are now in the armed services of the United States.

Reuben Ward, last of the line, was one of the two or three key men on the football team who carried the Tigers to the 1944 CIF championship. He and Ted Jones were elected co-captains after the Riverside game.

Reuben played on the 1943 team and was a senior on this year's eleven. Seldom out of the lineup he played 60 minutes in more than half his games and usually carried the ball for a first down or to push across a score near the goal line.

First of the "famous five" was Charles Ward of the college class of 1939, who was outstanding on the track and swimming teams. He is a lieutenant in the army air forces in Florida.

Henry Ward, No. 2 in the series, left Chaffey college in 1943 to enlist in the navy. He was a football star and is now a signalman third class.

Frank Ward played left halfback on the high school varsity gridiron teams of 1940 and 1941 and on the 1942 and 1943 Panther squads. He was Tiger captain and vice president of his high school senior class. He is now an ordnance man third class in the navy.

Ernest Ward, graduate of Chaffey high school last June, played on the championship high school sophomore eleven of 1942 and was a member of the 1943 varsity. He is now a radioman third class in the navy in Florida.

S. M. Jessup Sells Citrus Grove, Moves To Euclid Avenue

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Jessup have moved temporarily to the Lowell Bartlett residence at 1417 North Euclid avenue, after having sold their citrus ranch and residence on Arrow highway, west of Central avenue. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. James Elders of La Verne, who have moved to their new home.

The Uplanders had owned the property and resided there for 21 years. They own a residence at 560 North Euclid avenue and they will move there just as soon as it is vacated.

Willis' Place Gutted by Fire

With a fire loss of several thousand of dollars, Willis' Place, 151 North Second avenue, was the scene early Sunday morning of what might have been a conflagration.

Fire is believed to have started from live cigarette stubs, dumped at closing time into a trash can under the counter. Twenty-eight minutes after Willis Harris, the proprietor, closed the establishlishment, fire was observed by an unidentified servicemen as he was going south on Second avenue.

The Upland fire department responded immediately and within 10 minutes the blaze was under control. The early start of the flames, however, causesd considerable smoke and heat damage.

A few more minutes delay in getting on to the fire might have been disastrous for Willis' place and for adjoining business buildings, according to Fire Chief Howard Paulin.

"It just so happens the serviceman had alighted from the Pacific Electric bus from Los Angeles and it just so happens the bus was a trifle late—otherwise the blaze might not have been detected in time," explained Mr. Paulin, who highly complimented the alertness of the unidentified serviceman, who was a sailor and apparently had arrived here to visit.

Officers Bill Smith and Clarence Skvor were at Second avenue near C street in a routine check-up and the sailor gave the alarm to them.

Using a "fog nozzle" which is designed to extinguish flames with a minimum amount of water, the interior fire was controlled with virtually no "water damage," according to a report at the city hall concerning one of the city's worst fires.

The damage was centered along the bar, tables and furnishings in the north portion of the building. Interior of the structure had been recently renovated. Mr. Harris told Mr. Paulin that most of the damage was covered by insurance.

Mrs. McGrew Resigns From Junior High

Resignation of Mrs. Dorothy McGrew as junior high school teacher of business practices, mathematics and English was accepted by the Upland board of education last night.

Mrs. McGrew in a letter to the trustees declared that ill health required that she leave her teaching assignment and she asked that her contract be terminated.

Superintendent Harold W. Cook stated Mrs. McGrew has been inactive for the past several weeks and that Joseph DePasqua has been teaching her classes. Mr. DePasqua is 35 years of age, is married and has two children and taught 12 years in Massachusetts.

Culver & Hartzog Sell Barber Shop To Spencer Smith

George Culver and J. H. Hartzog, long-time barbers in Upland, have sold their shop to Spencer K. Smith, who recently moved to Upland from Ontario. He took possession of the barber shop at 153 East Ninth street on Monday.

Mr. Culver will continue at the shop as an employe while Mr. Hartzog will retire from the business.

Harold Long Is Firemen's Choice

As the result of last night's election, Harold Long is to be the new president of the Upland Volunteer Fire department. On Jan. 1 he will succeed Ernest Meal.

Other officers elected last night were Clinton Mayberry, vice president; Sam D. Barker, recording secretary; Harold Rowe, financial secretary and Harry Wright, treasurer.

Trustees are Glenn Atwood, Milton Huxtable and Clyde Duncan.

The election was held at the fireman's regular meeting in the fire hall. Eighteen men belong to the city's veteran department.

Pilot Bails Out As Plane Crashes; Explosion Heard

His plane crashed and the explosion was heard for miles, but Second Lieutenant Cato Wray, Jr., escaped with minor injuries Saturday afternoon. He is attached to the air corps at the Ontario base.

The plane landed near G street and Vineyard avenue. An explosion followed and golfers on the Red Hill country club course reported hearing the noise. The pilot bailed out after the plane went into a spin.

Roy Creighton Sells Service Station To Wallace Craney

For the first time in more than 30 years, Roy Creighton is not active in business here. He has sold his service station business at Second avenue and C street to Wallace Craney of Riverside.

Some months ago he sold his widely known sporting goods store to Alex Fader and from then until this weekend he operated only the service station, which adjoins the store.

E. R. "Doc" Bowman, veteran employe of Mr. Creighton, will continue with Mr. Craney.

The new Upland businessman was connected with the armed forces in an advisory capacity until recently. He was among the first 50 civilians to be engaged by the army and he served as a consultant in maintenance of motorized equipment. Prior to the war he was engaged in the oil industry.

No immediate changes in operation of the station are contemplated, Mr. Craney said.

DEDICATION OF HOSPITAL ADDITION TO BE IMPRESSIVE EVENT THURSDAY

Brief and impressive ceremonies at 2 p. m. Thursday will formally dedicate the new wing of the San Antonio Community hospital as Charles V. Burr, veteran president of the hospital's board of trustees, will unveil the cornerstone.

Unveiling of the stone will reveal a plaque with the wording:

"Charles V. Barr pavalion, 1944."

The new addition has been named in honor of Mr.Barr,whose interest and efforts have been vital factors in the rapid development of the institution.

Another highlight will be the presentation of a history of the hospital by Earl W. Paul, whose mother was largely instrumental in getting the institution established.

The convocation will be delivered by the Rev. Clarence E. Reynolds, Presbyterian church minister. Charles Latimer, vice president of the board, will preside at the outdoor program.

While many invitations have been issued, the general public is invited to attend the ceremonies, according to Dr. A. A. Aita, hospital superintendent.

Mr. Paul's history of the hospital will recite its rapid growth and especially during the last several years. Completion of the new unit will bring to double the capacity the hospital facilities of five years ago.

The Charles V. Barr pavilion is scheduled for completion in February and as the result of earlv-ordering of the furniture and equipment the structure can be immediately occupied on completion. Some of the equipment is already here and some is being manufactured on special order.

At least two persons have each offered to furnish a room in the new unit as an honor to the memory of some persons. Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Titus will furnish a room in honor of the memory of his mother. Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Weber will provide the furnishings of one room in honor of the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Jones.

Hope to Teach Music Next Year

Instrumental music will be taught once again in the Upland elementary school next September if an instructor can be found, the board of education decided last night.

When Charles Jones was instructor of instrumental music at Upland junior high school a year and a half ago, fourth, fifth and sixth grade students were given instruction and parents were encouraged to purchase instruments for them. Such preliminary training made it possible to have a junior high school orchestra.

Harold W. Cook, district superintendent, told the trustees that Mrs. Winifred Johnson, part-time teacher of instrumental music at Upland junior high school now, reported to him the instruction would have to be abandoned in the junior high school unless music is taught in the Elementry school.

Art instruction was abandoned, also, a year and a half ago in the Elementary school because it was impossible to obtain a teacher, but Mr. Cook stated several Elementary school teachers are proficient art instructors and include such instruction in their curricula. However, instrumental music is a subject requiring special technique.

Bond Sales Here Reach $340,000

War bond sales in Upland since the opening of the sixth war loan until today have reached $300,000 to individuals and $40,000 to corporations, Marion W. Grothe, Upland finance committee sales manager and acting chairman, reported.

Upland's quota for individuals has been exceeded by $25,000. The corporation quota is $100,000 and Upland will receive allotments of corporation purchases based upon the proportion of such employes residing here. While Upland to today has been assigned only $40,000 of its $100,000 quota, oversubscription of that quota seems assured.

The Upland war finance committee is continuing its campaign to enlist as many individuals as possible as bond investors and will strive to double the quota of $275,000 in that classification.

Food Fund Goes Up; $50 Awarded

Two families shared in the $50 awarded last night in the popular dividend day fund but no one participated in the $15 food fund offered Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Odis Baker and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. France reside at 709 North Third avenue and this house number was selected in the drawing last night. Sales slips from Saturday's business were on hand and the two families therefore received the money. Mrs. Baker is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. France.

The next dividend day fund will be $25.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Read, 402 North Eleventh avenue, did not have the food store sales slips for last Wednesday and Thursday. They, therefore, did not receive the food fund of $15.

Ten dollars will be added to this total to make $25 which will be offered Thursday evening.

To qualify, a person must have at least one sales slip from any food store advertising in today's Upland News. Or, more than one store may be represented but the total food purchases must be at least $1.

The Upland News' complete residential directory is used in selecing an address where the money is offered.

Los Olivos Denied School Bus Use

Because the Upland school district must abide by office of defense transportation regulations, the board of education last night declined to authorize transportation of Los Olivos housing project children to classrooms by bus on rainy days.

District Superintendent Harold W. Cook told the trustees that Thomas Griffith, Mrs. Henry Weinstock and one other resident of the project had called upon him, first requesting that transportation be provided at all times, and later amending it to request the service only on rainy days.

However, the government defense transportation officials have ruled that children residing two miles from school must walk. The Los Olivos project is half a mile from the junior high school.

Mr. Cook asked Ernest R. Camfield, faculty member in charge of student transportation, to express

93 of 97 Upland Cub Scouts Present at First Pack Meeting; 10 Flags Presented

Upland Cub Scouts' first pack meeting in the junior high school auditorium Friday evening was a memorable event.

Ninety-three of the 97 cubs, all uniformed, sat in the first five rows of the school auditorium. Behind them were 145 fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters and among them were another 150 well-wishers.

For nearly two hours the cubs and their cubmaster, Eugene L. Mueller, put on a show that kept interest alive continuously.

Lt. Bill Wennergren, a star scout in his youth who has won the distinguished flying cross, presidential citation and 11 oak leaf clusters for his daring exploits in aerial combat against the Nazis, told the cubs that "if the boys of Europe had worn your uniforms in the last decade, I would not now be wearing mine."

"The uniform I wear was put on me to fight to kill. You wear your uniform to fight to help other people. When you grow out of the cub uniform and then your Boy Scout uniform, you will be ready to be good citizens of the United States and of the world."

He said scouting helped him in innumerable ways in isolated forests and army camps. Once lost in flight over Italy, the radio brought in flight directions spoken in American slang and in American accent, but it was a Nazi trap to steer him to their field. He flew in the opposite direction and came home to his own field.

Trutsee's sale of the San Antonio Heights property formerly occupied by the Ussher-Davis foundation, scheduled for today, was postponed until December 26, it was reported this afternoon by the Pioneer Title Insurance & Trust Co.

More than a year ago Abe Kisner sold the property, which was to be used as an orphanage. Proceedings to have the superior court sell the property were started iate this summer and today had been set as the time for the public auction.

Considerable interest was being shown in the sale but no announcement was made today as to why the transaction was postponed.

USO Scrapbooks For Wounded Veteran

Upland-Ontario USO members are making scrapbooks containing cartoons and short stories clipped from magazines and sending the books to wounded veterans in hospitals.

"You, too, in your own home, can help bring cheer to men in hospitals, recovering from overseas injuries," the USO says.

"Even in camps and hospitals where there is an abundance of reading material, the USO scrapbook, because of its individuality and originality, brings pleasure to our hospitalized men.

"By clipping to the center of interest, you can get 250 to 300 cartoons in one USO scrapbook. Short stories from a number of magazines can be cut to fit into one of these durable little books."

Officials Will File Application For Federal Aid

Upland school trustees last night instructed Superintendent Harold W. Cook to make application to the federal works administration for funds to construct two additional rooms to the Elementary school to take care of children of the new housing project on North Campus avenue.

Total cost of the two additional rooms was estimated by Mr. Cook at $16,000 to $17,000, of which about $7,000 might be obtained from the United States government.

The superintendent was also authorized to ask Marsh, Smith & Powell, architects, to prepare sketches of the new rooms.

EXPECT LONG DELAY

The board took action last night when it was pointed out that the government requires three to four months to consider applications and that the government's decision probably will not be known until April.

Completion of the 200 temporary houses is scheduled within 90 days, but the Upland schools will attempt to absorb the added enrollment next April and May. Mr. Cook said the government estimates "in-migrant" people average .7 children per family, or 140 for 200 families.

The school district might get by for two months by placing 30 children in one junior high school room now unoccupied, by using the music room in the Elementary school, by increasing the sizes of all classes and by re-zoning the elementary school districts to put more children in the Sierra View school.

KEEP NINTH GRADE HERE

Mr. Cook said it would not be advisable to transfer ninth grade students to the Chaffey high school campus. That proposal was discussed several years ago and drew many protests from Upland families. He added that many years ago Merton E. Hill had counselled against it.

Upon inquiry from Allan S. Barr, school trustee, Mr. Cook said at least one additional junior high school teacher and two elementary school teachers will be needed next year, in addition to replacements.

The Upland school district will receive approximately $11,550 from increased average daily attendance payments as a result of the passage of Proposition No. 9 at the recent election, but employment of additional faculty members will require a large portion of it.

The school district does not receive taxes from the Los Olivos housing project, and the board of education at its meeting a month ago asked Mr. Cook to inquire into "in lieu" payments. He said that Otto S. Roen, executive secretary of the housing project, has told him $3,800 would be paid to the county treasury from rentals for distribution to taxing units and that the Upland school district would receive about $850.

The trustees are Frank K. Nichols, Howard N. Mason and Mr. Barr.

Mailings Heavy Every Day Here

Every day is a "big mailing" day at the Upland post office but Saturday was one of the largest in the city's history, according to Postmaster Orton P. Brady.

The office was open all day last Saturday and it will be likewise on the two remaining Saturdays prior to Christmas.

Mr. Brady reported a near-record throng at the office Saturday morning with the large crowd continuing during the afternoon up until 6 o'clock.

Miss Ada Weston of Peach Springs, Arizona, underwent an emergency appendectomy Monday at Green Memorial hospital. She is a sister of Mrs. Rex Tabor of 468 North Second avenue.

Perhaps There Are Other Things More Important Than Cigarette Shortage

The hottest issue in America at the moment seems to be the cigarette shortage. What happened to Hitler, how Congress and the President will finally reconcile differences on the social security tax and the state department appointments, whether Germany can survive the winter, when MacArthur will be able to march on Manila, the shortage of ammunition on the western front and the serious implications of the crisis in Greece—all these questions appear to have become suddenly secondary to whether the drug stores or the tobacco shops will have a new supply of cigarettes today.

Locally, no murders have been reported as a result of the mad scramble for a smoke, but no one can deny that the cigarette crisis has supplanted the weather as the topic of the hour. Even Santa Claus has been crowded into the background as otherwise respectable citizens threaten to trample each other under foot in the frenzied search for a fag.

At the risk of being considered an unsympathetic wretch we think it is time someone sounded a warning that we are letting smoke get in our eyes.

We remember that at the start of the war some of the women thought they wouldn't have a leg to stand on when the supply of silk and nylon gave out. Perhaps it's time to pause between puffs and ponder the fate of the nation. That would not only conserve tobacco, but would be good for all concerned. It might give us a better prospective—and some inventive genius might even bob up with a cure for the cigarette shortage.

An Airport in Upland? It Might Be a Good Development

Why not an airport for Upland?

For weeks an idea for the development of an auxiliary airport here has been discussed in limited circles. The Civilian Aeronautics Authority recently recommended development of various airports in the county, but Upland was not mentioned at that time.

It is understood additional recommendations can be made. What air transportation requirements may be in the future no one knows definitely. Some authorities favor only large air fields, while others strongly recommend "auxiliary airfields" along airplane routes.

Upland should not pass up any opportunity to be considered for any development that will give service to our community. Very serious study should be given to the opportunities and possibilities here.

Letters to The News

UPLAND'S FUTURE

Editor Upland News:

Some of the things that have created the charm and beauty of Upland were reviewed recently in an open letter addressed to the Upland Planning Commission.

The letter was written by Mrs. W. A. Mackay, and I agree with her that the growing of oranges and lemons is the most important thing in the life of Upland today, "economically, hygienically, or esthetically". I am sure that the planning commission and Gordon Whitnall also agree.

But, I wish that I could feel as complacent as Mrs. Mackey seems to feel regarding the continued dominance of the citrus industry.

If the growth of Upland could be arrested where it is at the moment, there would, perhaps, be little need for the planning commission to but meet occasionally and discuss plans for an annual clean up and paint-up day, or to engage in a little local gossip. But events are taking place beyond Upland's borders that can make ugly changes in the landscape if they are allowed to go along undirected.

The fact that Upland is a pleasant place to call "home" when combined with another fact, namely, that downtown Los Angeles will be brought to within less than a half-hour's travel by express highways already planned by the state and Los Angeles county governments and encouraged by the federal government, can well bring such an influx of new residents as to destroy a sizeable acreage of orchards. Such expansion can also greatly change the character of the community.

In the Los Olivos housing project on Campus avenue there are 100 families who, when the war is over, must move out and find homes of their own. And, in the project just starting, there will soon be two hundred families, all new to Upland, who will be looking for homes after the war. Some will want to stay here and some will want to move away, and there is little that Upland can do about what they want to do.

Many others employed near here are now travelling long distances to and from work. At the first opportunity they will move closer to work. Los Angeles county authorities expect that part of their county adjacent to San Bernardino to increase in population four times during the next 25 years.

A population increase, no matter whether composed of Los Angeles city workers or employes of nearby factories, must also bring with it the necessary cleaners, grocers, bakers, doctors, barbers, and, perhaps, even a new preacher to care for the many needs of the newcomers.

Whether this growth replaces many acres of the best fruit trees or whether it is guided onto land less desirable for orchard use can be controlled to a large extent by the planning commission, but only if it acts ahead of the growth.

During the depression, San Bernardino county had one of the heaviest relief loads of any place in the country. Our county authorities know that the unemployment problem after war-work stops will be vastly greater than before. They are actively working to forestall such a situation again by striving to bring industry to this particular area.

Many persons fear that this means the industrialization of Upland. Yet Mrs. Mackay's letter, while condeming this industrialization, would have the planning commission sit by and not be prepared to cope with the situation. It is still for Upland to decide whether the effects of this and the coming of other foreseeable developments will be beneficial or harmful. To try to do something after they have taken place is but to try to decorate ugliness.

Mr. Whitnall pointed out that if Upland has given serious study to the proposed freeway through the city, she is prepared to say to the State Highway commission, "We know that Southern California needs this improvement badly. We have studied the matter and we believe that if you ca build it in this way it will cause the least disruption to our community." Otherwise, the state can give but little consideration to local feelings.

Plans to guide city growth take time. The planning commission meets but once a month for a couple of hours. Many local people will want to be heard, in fact, the planning commission can do a good job only if the people do come forward and make themselves heard.

It is my hope that Mrs. Mackay will speak again and that others interested in Upland's welfare will join her. However, whether plans are ready or not, growth will take place. And, only plans that are made in advance can prevent this growth from spoiling the community that we have today.

William O. Totman of Ontario declared the cubs can only be strong if they are given active support of their parents and complimented the families of the Upland pack on their large turnout.

O. A. Alderson, Old Baldy council executive of Pomona, added that when parents are interested, the biggest factor in Boy Scout or Cub Scout success is assured.

Phil Ordway, Boy Scout commissioner of Claremont, led the cubs in clapping to the tune of "Yankee Doodle."

Of the 10 dens in the pack, s were represented by all their members at the meeting. Den five had 16 members, den 10 had 10 present, den nine had nine there, den eight had eight, den seven had eight and den three had seven in attendance. Man Found Dead in Cucamonga District

Remains of Thomas G. Marquez, who was found dead in the Cucamonga district last night, will be turned over to R. E. Williams, county public administrator for burial, E. Tweed Stone reported today.

The lifeless body was found on Hellman avenue between San Bernardino road and Baseline avenue about 10 o'clock last night. Apparently death was caused by heart attack.

Earl Ledig, 204 North Hellman avenue, discovered the body and notified police. Deputy Sheriff C. S. Myers sent the remains to San Antonio Community hospital and Deputy Coroner E. P. Doyle ordered the deceased man to the Stone mortuary.

A check was found in his pocket indicating he had been employed by Mike Herrera, Alta Loma rancher. As far as could be determined today, he has no relatives.

Yule Season Marked By Tea at Black Home Yesterday

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's Episcopal church observed the Christmas season with a delightful tea yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William H. S. Black, 1531 North Euclid avenue. Women of the Upland Presbyterian church were guests at the affair.

Christmas greens and berries decorated the home and partially screened the balcony in the living room where the boys' choir from the Norton school sang Christmas carols. Miss Gatti Holmes directed the boys.

Decorations of the handsomely-appointed tea table also carried out the Yuletide theme. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Clarence E. Reynolds, Mrs. John A. Luther, Mrs. G. A. Hanson and Mrs. William S. Morrison of Monterey.

Greeting the guests with Mrs. Black were Mrs. William R. Mason, Mrs. Edward E. Gray and Mrs. Philip B. White, president of the Auxiliary.

Assisting as hostesses for the tea were Mrs. Kendle M. Hill, Mrs. Cleland F. Baxter, Mrs. L. A. Weller and Mrs. Huber Kalbach.

A program of Christmas music is being arranged for the December meeting of the Upland Business and Professional Women's club Thursday evening in the Upland Woman's club house, and members may bring their husbands or other guests, Mrs. Edgar C. Pierce, the president, said today.

University Women Enjoy Christmas Tea

Miss Janet Latimer, acting executive in the Girls Reserve department of the Y.W.C.A. in Honolulu was guest speaker at the Christmas tea of the Pomona Valley branch of the American Association of University Women held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Hilton in Claremont.

The subject of Miss Latimer's talk, "Forty-ninth State," might be interpreted as "Hawaii, the Melting Pot of the South Pacific," where to be an American is the ideal of all the nationalities of this small, over-crowded, vastly important group of islands.

Christmas music was provided by Miss Gail Martin of Ontario vocalist, who was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Allen Harrison.

There is some question as to how much effect the big political winds have on the way the straw votes blow.

Former Bank Employes Now in Armed Forces Will Return to Jobs

Virtually all staff members of the Bank of America now in the armed forces want to return to the bank when their military service is completed, according to their responses to questionnaires from the bank.

A pamphlet is now being mailed to the men, answering many points brought up by their responses, renewing the bank's pledge that reinstatement awaits them on their return and informing them their seniority has been preserved as service with the bank dates back to original employment, including time spent in the armed forces.

Some of the men showed concern over what would happen to women tellers who had been their wartime replacements. The pamphlet reveals that many of these women intend to go back to homemaking, but states also that as increased activity is expected, requiring a larger staff than before the war, places will be available for those returning as well as those now on the staff who wish to make banking their permanent occupation.

As to salary, the men are assured of generous treatment, with consideration given to salary received on leaving, length of service and experience in the armed forces, prevailing salary scales at the time of return and responsibilities of the positions to which the men are assigned.

Announce Gas Rate Discount

Domestic and commercial customers of the Southern Counties Gas Co. in the eastern district will receive a 7.5 per cent temporary war emergency discount on that portion of their gas bill over and above the minimum charge, effective with meter readings taken December 15.

The discount has just been ordered by the California Railroad commission and is to remain in effect for a period of 12 months, ending with meter readings taken on December 14, 1945.

The discount also applies to industrial consumers on the firm rate, but does not effect gas engine, oil field and interruptable rates to industry. The discount will be applied to that portion of the bill in excess of the minimum charge.

Commenting on the commission's order, H. R. Mead, company district manager declared, "This discount brings gas rates to a new low level throughout the territory served by our company. Our rates are among the few items in the cost of living which had not been increased since the war began."

CALIFORNIA

There's a great state away out west
Of all the states we love it best:
It's California.
Summer, winter, spring or fall
It's the grandest state of all.
Our California.
Sometimes the mountains are covered with snow
But it is warm in the valleys down below,
In California.
Home of the giant redwood trees
That stand majestic in the breeze
In California.
There's beauty in the hills, and in the skies of blue
There's beauty in the canyons, and in the valleys too,
In California.
The nights are cool and the air is clear.
Neighbors are good and friends are dear,
In California.
When the sun sets low in the golden west,
And all nature is dressed in her very best,
That's really California.
Up in the hills, where the wild deer roam,
Or down by the sea, where the billows foam
It's good old California.

Children Not Kept Waiting in Rain At Upland School

Allan S. Barr, member of the Upland board of education, said last night complaints had been made to him that on rainy days school children have not been admitted to the buildings but are required to wait outside until teachers arrive.

Harold W. Cook, superintendent, said the first bus arrives at the school at 7:55 a.m., and that teachers are not required to be in the buildings until 8:10. On one occasion some children were required to wait about 10 minutes in a lobby where they were protected from the rain before they could be admitted to the library.

Chaffey Practice Victories Point To Winning Year

Chaffey high school's unseasoned varsity basketball team is looking forward today to a successful season when the C.I.F. league opens January 12 against Pomona on the Chaffey court.

Victorious in two practice games, the Tigers have gained confidence and have ironed out some of their early faults.

Last Friday the Chaffey quint defeated El Monte 38 to 22 and the week before downed Chino 29 to 22.

Bill Dingle, forward, got 2 points for Chaffey against El Monte. Paul Blackburn, right forward, scored five points, and Don Patterson, substitute forward, made one point by scoring on a foul. George O'Hair, center, and Denton Mattison, guard, each netted three points and Reuben Ward, guard, got four.

Coach Karl W. Kaiser invariably puts a highly coordinated team in to league competition, but Chaffey this year has been handicapped by the loss of almost all of last year's players. Dingle, Blackburn, Mattison and Jimmy Lucas are the only experienced players on the team.

Vaccination of Children Urged as Timely Precaution

Through teh cooperation of the city health officer, Dr. T. T. Ackerson, and the school nurse, Mrs. Lloyd Gilmore, all children in the Upland school can be vaccinated for diphtheria and smallpox—but before this can be done the parents must give their consent.

School officials today asked for the full cooperation of the general public in making possible vaccination of local children. An accepted practice in modern day prevention of illness, vaccination is administered without charge and is done only in the interests of the public good, it was pointed out.

Vaccination may be administered from time to time but the first requirement is the parents' consent. School officials, mindful of the public interests, are asking for cooperation from the parents.

Fifty-six per cent of the nation's grapefruit crop in the past year was canned.

Upland Cubs Win 3-City Event

Upland Cub scouts defeated Ontario and Pomona youngsters in a field meet on the Chaffey field Saturday and in the division made up of nine year olds. Upland took the first three places.

The competitive events involved football and were accuracy in forward passing, place kicking and drop kicking and distance in punting. Teams were divided by ages —9, 10 and 11 years.

In the nine-age division, Marland Sefton scored the highest with 30 points and Mike Cruse was second with 27 and Wayne Brandon third with 24, all of Upland. In the other divisions, Uplanders did not place but the total team score was such that it put local groups far out in front with a total Upland score of 417. Pomona's delegation scored 399 and Ontario made 163 points. Names of the Upland cub team follow:

Nine year old—Harland Sefton, Mike Cruse, Wayne Brandon, John Wilken, Dale Hilke, Kenneth Mueller, Bobby Beardsley, Loren Grumble, Charles McKellar, Homer Lawson, Jack Benson, Lloyd Smith, Jimmie Long, Gilbert Candelas and Harold Kough.

Ten year old—Bobby Pace, Reginald Keith, Buel Anderson, David Farmer, Tommy Maxwell, Jackie Welch, Calvin Dickerman, Lee Riggs, Earl Briggs, Dale Pascoe, Donald Wood, Donald Cline, Stanley Evers, Jay Trumbull.

Upland Football Banquet Friday

Upland junior high school football players will be guests of honor at a banquet and dance sponsored by the Boys' League Friday evening in the Upland Elementary school cafeteria, Harold W. Cook, school superintendent, announced today.

Mr. Cook also announced the names of players who will be awarded letters at an assembly when school reopens in January. They are Jesus Anguiano, Eleazar Borbon, Fred Christensen, LeRoy Graham, Simon Hoyos, Bernard Hoyos, Leonard Hill, Duane Isom, Clarence Jones, Dennis Luby, Ted Milch, Donald Mueller, Harold O'Neal, Wayne Shell and Allen Steffler, and their manager, Gene Hill.

Dinner will be prepared Friday evening by Mrs. R. S. Hood and served by girls of the home economics department under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Mae Middleton, teacher.

An informal after-dinner program has been planned, including short talks by Coach Maurice Johnson and Mr. Cook. Ernest R. Camfield will be master of ceremonies.

This Christmas the war trains will roll —as usual

Out on the line, December 25 will be as busy as any other day on the Southern Pacific. It won't be much of a holiday for our men at the front, either. The enemy doesn't stop shooting just because it's Christmas.

This Christmas Day and night we shall keep the war trains rolling, just as we have kept them rolling every day and night since Pearl Harbor.

To all the travelers and shippers we served this year—our heartfelt thanks for your sympathetic understanding of our problems, and the cheerful way you accepted the inconvenience of wartime transportation.

In sending you the Season's Greetings, we join with you in praying that next Christmas will be celebrated in a world of peace.

Civilians! To avoid disappointment please don't plan a holiday trip on Southern Pacific trains. Let a man in uniform go instead.

Sgt. Beitzell in Italy Spearhead

Sgt. James E. Beitzell of Upland is fighting in Italy with the 361st infantry regiment which spearheaded the advance of Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's fifth army from Velletri to the Arno river without having once given ground, the army announced today.

Sgt. Beitzell, who resided at 515 East Fifteenth street, is assistant to the regimental operaions commander and is now participating in the Florence-Bologna drive.

The regiment landed in Italy May 31 and two days later fought its first battle north of Velletri. The 361st was one of the units that took the Albano hills and Lake Albano making possible the fall of Rome. The regiment then went on to defeat the Germans at Magliano.

The outfit won a signal victory at Ponte d'Istria where more then 200 Germans were captured. The regiment moved through Orceto, Ponsacco and Pontedera and was the first in Italy to reach the Arno river.

Kinda Silly, Huh???

Here we are with our sleeves rolled up and busier than ants at a picnic.

Just shouldered my way thru a flock of designing, acquisitive wimmin to see wot was left in the gift jungles in Mac's Old Curiosity Shop.

The Ladies of The Trusty Crew expect The Ancient, Bald Headed Medicine Mixer to give youse guys and gals an intimate commentary — a forthright written exposition on the gift situation. But, Heck—I can't git clost enough to the counters to get the low down.

Anyhow, I got me an old love in the form and substance of our annual Rexall Weather Chart Calendar. Honest folks it's a honey!

On account of so many people with so much do-re-mi to spend we don't have to take lessons in salesmanship. The Jernt is somewhat like a cafeteria — just pick out wot ya wants and we figure the sales tax.

I do get sorta romantic about these Foxy, hand-painted and delicately perfumed Calendars. You'd be appalled and agog should you hear the wild tales we hear about their uses — their all inclusive usefulness. Over thirty years ago we started 'em off with perhaps an issue of 500. Now we buy them by the thousands. Really they are an expensive hobby for the Medicine Mixing Maestro — BUT—we caint quit now unless the paper shortage forces the issue. We've been cut down in our supply and when they're gone we caint git no moar.

Got a few Kodachrome 35 Millimeter films so we been taking some Color Pictures of Gottloff (all of them came out nice)—and his Maw.

So from time to time his Paw—who is now busily engaged with the 77th division in the newest invasion of Leyte—will get a chance to show the gang a projected life size vision of John Alexander Gottloff, Jr.—in technicolor.

Gottloff has quite a yen for his Synthetic Grampaw. When Gramp heaves in sight he struggles violently if being held and if he is on the floor he makes haste with his famous crawl stroke and Gramp has to beat the white man's burden.

I think the main attraction—beside seeking a change from the Wimmin—is the tie holder on the front of my shirt. It's just a clasp bar with a bit of chain—but that's the swellest gadget he's ever found and its possession brings forth a special grin and much intimate conversation understood only by members of the lodge.

He's a Gadgeteer — thet's wot he is.

Cheerfully yours,
—GRAMPAW MAC

Los Olivos Denied School Bus Use

his opinion, and Mr. Camfield wrote:

"We are now giving service to approximately 225 of the 1025 students enrolled at the four schools in this district. This is about 21 per cent of the total.

"No student in our school has to walk more than one mile to the nearest bus stop and no student has to walk more than one and one-half miles to the school he attends. The great majority of students walk one-half mile or less.

"We revised our schedules about two years ago at the request of the director of the office of defense transportation. His directive was that 'schedules should be predicated on the assumption that the physically able child can walk two miles to and from school—as in many instances his father and grandfather did before him.'

"The distance from Los Olivos headquarters to the regular stop at the junior high school is about one-half mile. If this distance is taken as a measuring device, approximately 400 more students will be eligible for bus service than are now receiving it in the Upland school district.

"Two buses are now in full time operation and Mr. Johnson and I are doing all of the driving, before and after school. Neither of us can do any more driving, because of our teaching assignments.

"If bus service is extended to the additional 400 students, you will need to add two or three buses and an equal number of drivers to your present setup."

More roasting turkeys are expected on markets at Christmas and New Years than at Thanksgiving, according to the war food administration.

Turkey production this year will probably be the highest on record, about 500 million pounds dressed weight, compared to last year's high record of 466 million pounds.

Yet military requirements have been so large that not enough turkeys were left to supply every civilian at Thanksgiving.

Since November 5, turkey producers have been free to sell their birds through usual trade channels.

YOU HEAR IT EVERYWHERE!

Yes, home owners throughout California these days tell their friends, "We refinanced our home loan at Bank of America. Now, instead of an old first and second mortgage, we have a single FHA insured loan which we meet with smaller monthly payments."

That's the whole story of home loan refinancing in a few words, and if that story interests you, the manager or lending officer of your nearest branch of Bank of America will gladly answer any questions.
